

TRANSPORTATION PROBLEM THEME OF K.C. ADDRESS

President Thinks Con- solidation is True Solution

(By The Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 22.—Consolidation of the railroads of the country into a small number of systems is a rational, justifiable step, full of promise towards solution of the transportation problem, President Harding declared here tonight in the second prepared address of his western trip.

Long lines had formed about the convention hall where the president spoke at 6 o'clock, a half hour before the doors were thrown open. Each person was handed an American flag as he entered the auditorium and instructed to keep the banner convoluted until the president arrived at 8:05 o'clock.

At this time the audience which packed to capacity the hall, which holds 12,000, arose in mass waving the flags and cheering.

The effect was obviously pleasing to the president and Mrs. Harding both of whom acknowledged the greeting, smiling and bowing while the ovation continued for several minutes.

On the streets the overflow gathered to hear the address by means of amplifiers which had been installed for that purpose.

The meeting opened with prayer and then Mayor Frank H. Cromwell introduced the president.

Mr. Harding began speaking at 8:19 o'clock.

He seemed to have virtually recovered from the severe case of sunburn contracted during a ride about the city early in the day and which caused him to remain at his hotel during the afternoon while the physicians treated his swollen lips and blistered face with ice packs.

His face, however, still was reddened from the effects of the rays of a burning sun.

A burst of cheering that lasted four minutes occurred when the president arose. It was the biggest demonstration that had greeted the executive during his trip and the applause and shouts echoed and re-echoed thruout the vast hall.

"I think I may say," the president began, "that was a warm demonstration in every sense of the word."

He then referred to Kansas City as "the heart of America and the sanctuary of the flag."

Amplifying apparatus carried the president's voice, seemingly fresher and more vigorous than last night at St. Louis to the far corners of the hall.

Radio apparatus again picked up the president's words in an endeavor to broadcast his address to New York, Los Angeles and other distant cities of the Republic.

Audience Listens Attentively

The audience listened attentively as the president proceeded with that portion of his address which dealt in an historical manner with the railroad question.

The first prolonged applause greeted the president's statement that he did not share the views of those who advocate government ownership.

There was scattering applause when he asserted that "property rights in railway investment are entitled to every consideration under our constitution which is due to property rights anywhere."

The president departed from his prepared address while in the midst of his explanation of the railroad consolidation question to say:

"I have been warned against making such a speech as this in Kansas City."

The temperature in the hall was up to 95 degrees and a few left to seek relief but their places were taken as soon as they passed out. Mr. Harding sensing the oppressive heat spoke more rapidly than usual or at a rate of about 145 words a minute.

The audience applauded when the executive said he did not "believe it possible under our form of government to compel men to work against their will."

When the president directed critical remarks at the action of railroad managers in ignoring railroad labor board decisions, there was applause.

Reference to use of inland waterways as a means of reducing freight charges was loudly applauded and there was even more hearty cheers when the president departed to say that the Missouri river should be developed as a means of transportation.

The president concluded speaking at 9:10 o'clock without having departed materially from his prepared address.

FORMER PREMIER OF CANADA TALKS OF CITIZENSHIP

Discusses the Two Elements of Good Citizenship

(By The Associated Press)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 22.—Rectitude and duty are the elements necessary for good citizenship, Arthur Meighan, former premier of Canada and at present a member of the Canadian parliament asserted today in an address before the annual convention of Rotary International, in session here.

"There are two elements of citizenship," he stated. "One is the claim of right or sense of rectitude. The other is the sense of duty or obligation. The failure of citizenship is the preponderance of the first over the second. The harmonizing of the two is success of citizenship."

Friendship and pluck are assets of citizenship, he added.

The formality of electing Guy Gundaker of Philadelphia president, and re-electing Rufus Chapin of Chicago, treasurer, was gone thru. They were without opposition as were John Bain Taylor of London and John Gibson of Toronto, Ont., for directors of Great Britain and Ireland, and for Canada, respectively.

Charles Rhodes of Auckland, N. Z., was elected eighth director, who is chosen after the British and Canadian and the five American directors have been elected.

The following were elected directors for the United States, out of seven nominated:

Everett W. Hill, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Benjamin C. Brown, New Orleans, La.; A. W. Smith, Jr., Pittsburgh, Pa.; Frank Hatfield, Evansville, Ind., and Frank Lamb, Hoquiam, Wash.

Mr. Gundaker is a restaurateur and formerly was a newspaper and advertising man. He is author of a code of ethics covering every relation of the restaurant proprietor which has been adopted by the national restaurant association.

CENTRAL STATES STILL IN GRIP OF HEAT WAVE

Temperature Drops Somewhat in the East
Friday

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 22.—Central United States continued to mop its brow today as abnormally high temperatures remained, although reports showed a drop in high temperatures in the east and a rise from low temperatures in the west.

The Great Lakes district and most of the upper plain states which have been suffering under the blaze of a heat wave since Monday were given no cheering news from weather observers for tomorrow, forecasts in the main indicating continued fair and warm.

The Atlantic coast, Washington, Philadelphia and other eastern cities found relief today in a moderation of several degrees. From the west where heavy frosts and unseasonably cool weather has been reported, forecasts indicated a slight rise in temperature. Southern states are promised more of their present not abnormally high temperatures.

Alaska today had a heat wave with temperatures reaching as high as 84 at Eagle, while Honolulu's beaches reported eighty degrees with plenty of cooling breezes.

Unusually cool weather has been prevalent in northern Europe and Asia, official weather maps show. The temperature to lay at Spitzbergen was 26; London 60; Paris 56; in southern France 52; and the Azores 66. Iceland reported 44 and northern Scotland 40 degrees.

SEIZE LIQUOR IN PHILADELPHIA RAID

(By The Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, June 22.—Champagne and other wines valued at bootleggers prices at close to $1,000,000 were seized today in a raid of prohibition agents or an establishment on Eighth street near Fairmount avenue. A warrant for the arrest of Joseph Witten, the alleged proprietor, was issued. The seizure netted 185,000 gallons of various kinds of wine and 27 cases of choice champagne, it was said.

Six clerks, the prohibition agents declared were busy waiting on customers when they entered.

CONSOLIDATION OF RAILROADS WAS APPROVED

Commissioner E a s t man Dissents from Majority Opinion

(By The Associated Press)
ROME, June 22.—The situation growing out of the eruption of Mount Etna the grave, fortunately does not take the form of a catastrophe, says the semi-official Stefani News Agency today in scoring some of the Italian newspapers which, it declares, continue to publish exaggerated accounts and even "faked" photographs of the eruption.

"There has been no loss of life," adds the statement, and only a few houses and cultivated fields thru which the lava flowed have been destroyed. At Castiglione the station alone was destroyed and railway communication interrupted. Tho at Linguaglossa some houses were burned and the town may still be threatened, the lava stream is more than a mile away.

"The Italian government has decided to suppress any further exaggerations. It is expected that the lava flow from Mount Etna will continue as the volcano is now at its period of greatest activity but happily the lava's advance is slow."

"The king's and Premier Mussolini's visits to the stricken area not only indicate an act of friendship to the Sicilian people, but are proof of the government's willingness to carry out its duty in this part of the country, where the population is calm and confident."

Pope Pius has sent 25,000 lire more to the Bishop of Acireale for relief work.

TRYING TO PREVENT BANDIT'S RELEASE

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 22.—If Fred G. Thompson, charged with being the "smiling woman bandit" who shot and killed Richard Tesmer, successfully dodges the murder warrant sworn out for him today to thwart attempts to release him on a writ of habeas corpus he still faces the probability of criminal action for draft evasion.

Frank Carrick, "husband" of Thompson for 14 years and arrested with him in the apartment in which police also found Marie Clark, said by Thompson to have been his wife for two years, today was remanded to the sheriff when habeas corpus proceedings were continued until tomorrow. Federal officials have declared they contemplate filing charges against him for claiming exemption because of his "wife."

Such action against both Carrick and Thompson, it was announced today, depends on the opinion of Assistant District Attorney General E. L. Weiss and United States Commissioner James B. Glass as to whether the statute of limitations applies.

The murder charge against Thompson was placed when Attorney Frank O'Donnell petitioned for a writ releasing the suspect. The petition was dismissed and Thompson was ordered held without bond for a hearing tomorrow morning before Judge John J. Rooney.

AMBASSADOR CHILD VISITS QUAKE DISTRICT

(By The Associated Press)
LINGUALOSSA, June 22.—The American ambassador, Richard Washburn Child and his party today visited Linguaglossa at the base of Mount Etna. His visit it was announced, was of an official character. He received a grateful welcome from the entire population.

Mr. Child and the members of his party were escorted by Italian officials and the Bishop of Acireale to the outskirts of the town where they viewed the lava stream which had just reached the first outlying houses a distance of some four hundred yards from the main square.

Voicing the sympathy of his government for the sufferers the ambassador left for Catania for his return to the mainland on the United States Cruiser Pittsburgh.

Banking Interests To Stabilize Market

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 22.—Wall street, shaken to the depths by the string of failures and the resultant loss of public confidence which followed disclosures of widespread bucketing of customers' orders, breathed its first long breath in a week today when powerful banking interests stepped into the breach to stabilize the market.

While the banking support was confined to brokerage houses holding membership in the New York Stock Exchange, the strength infused into that market carried prices up on both the Consolidated and the curb exchanges and a marked spirit of optimism prevailed. The rushing to cover by shorts aided in the strengthening process.

A prominent financier, associated with one of the largest banks in the street told reporters this afternoon he believed it was "safe to say the unsettlement in the brokerage situation is at an end so far as the New York Stock Exchange houses are concerned."

One of the most interesting developments of the day to observers was a conference of Seymour Cromwell, president of the New York Stock Exchange, with members of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. None of the conferees

SUMMARIES FROM COMPANY'S BOOKS OFFERED IN TRIAL

Prepared by Expert for the Trial for the Morse
Concern

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 22.—Summaries prepared from the books of the United States Transport company were offered today at the Morse trial by the government in an effort to show that the company, a Morse concern, failed to account for approximately $1,350,000 of revenue received from the operation of 13 steamers for the shipping board.

The summaries were prepared by H. T. Fielding, an expert accountant in the employ of the emergency fleet corporation. The defense objected to them on the ground that they represented solely the witness's interpretation of the books and counsel for the Morses are prepared to subject Fielding to a long and sharp cross-examination when the trial is resumed Monday.

Eight of the ships operated by the transport company were built by the Morses for the government at Groton, Conn., and the other five were built at the Morse yard at Alexandria, Va. Fielding's summary with regard to the operation of the Groton company failed to show that the company failed to account for $406,995, representing the difference between total operating income of $1,128,928 and actual operating expenses of $721,933.

The total operating income of the Virginia ships was placed by Fielding at $1,780,478, of which amount he claimed $938,760 was expended for accounts other than that of ship operation. The books indicated, he asserted, that most of this amount was used to pay bills contracted before the transport company entered into the operating agreement with the shipping board.

Prior to entering into this agreement the Morses undertook to purchase the ships but the shipping board took them back on the ground that the purchasers had failed to make the cash payments as agreed.

THE REPLY OF THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT stated that the export of liquor from Canada was not prohibited and there existed no provisions in the customs laws or regulations warranting refusal of clearance papers to vessels carrying liquor destined for a foreign port simply because its entry without special permits is prohibited.

MAKES REPORT ON KILLING OF SAILOR

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Canadian government in answer to an inquiry from the state department here has made a report covering the firing upon the American fishing schooner Sloop by a British coast guard ship off the coast of Vancouver Island two months ago which resulted in the killing of an American sailor.

The report sets forth that the American vessel was caught with lines overboard fishing within the territorial waters of British Columbia, that upon being hailed she attempted to make off and resisted search so that it was necessary to fire upon her.

A report requested from the American consul has not yet been received due to difficulty in locating, for affidavits, witnesses of whom follow the sea and therefore are only occasionally available.

NEWSPAPERS ARE SCORED BY NEWS AGENCY'S REPORT

Say Stories of Mount Etna Eruption Great- ly Exaggerated

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 22.—The project of the Van Sweringen group, now in control of the New York, Chicago & St. Louis railroad, to consolidate that property with the Lake Erie & Western, the Toledo, St. Louis & Western, the Port Wayne, Cincinnati & Louisville railroad and the Chicago & State Line railroad was approved today in its entirety by the interstate commerce commission.

The commission's order took the form of approving the New York, Chicago & St. Louis company's application to issue 327,000 shares of six per cent preferred stock and 462,479 shares of common stock, a part of which is to be exchanged for issued capital stock of the companies to be taken into the merger. The order also incorporated a certificate declaring that public convenience and necessity required the operation of the group of lines as a single unit.

The Van Sweringen group of Cleveland, which recently acquired control of the Chesapeake & Ohio has operated the Nickel Plate and the lines which is now proposed to consolidate with it for some time. The consolidation proposal was approved by state authorities of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and New York.

"This finding will gravely impair, if it does not destroy," Commissioner Eastman dissenting opinion said, "our power to administer successfully what the authors of the Transportation Act of 1920 deemed to be one of its most constructive and important provisions."

"In my opinion it is an ill considered and unsound finding. Even if I were in doubt in regard to the meaning and intent of the law I should still feel that the commission ought not to undermine its own jurisdiction in this matter prior to an expression of opinion in the courts."

WILL NOT PERMIT BULL FIGHT AT SIDNEY

(By The Associated Press)
Attorney General W. D. Rankin today informed The Associated Press that the proposed bull fight at Sidney, Mont., July 4, would not be permitted. With reference to the resolutions presented at the state federation of women's clubs at Anaconda asking that the Dempsey-Gibbons fight be stopped he said he would not care to make a statement.

"The Montana statutes clearly forbid animal fighting, so of course there will be no bull fight," he stated generally said.

"The law must be followed in regard to the Dempsey-Gibbons fight, but as to the allegation that in passing the present boxing law the legislature failed to repeal the former law prohibiting boxing I could not make statement off hand. I have already given my opinion on this contest, said then that the law must be followed and that is my position now."

SAYS BROKERAGE FIRMS WILL NOT LOSE ANY MONEY

Alien Property Custodian Issues State-

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 22.—Neither Knauth, Nachod and Kuhne, nor Zimmerman & Forsyth, two New York stock brokerage firms which recently failed will suffer loss thru the former enemy-owned stock which remained in their hands as security. Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian declared today in a statement dealing with the business relations between the firms and his office.

"The reason the alien property custodian has business relations with Knauth, Nachod & Kuhne and Zimmerman & Forsyth," Mr. Miller said, "is due to the fact that prior to the war alien enemies, whose property was subsequently seized by the United States government had accounts with the firms mentioned. Under the provisions of the law the alien property custodian demanded the various stocks and bonds in the possession of these brokerage firms which belonged to alien enemies."

The stocks and bonds were held by the brokerage firms as security for debit balances owed by the alien enemies. The alien property custodian does not have actual, physical possession of the stocks and bonds deposited as security against loans. When the debit balances are paid the brokerage firms in the ordinary course of business would have turned over the stocks and bonds to the alien property custodian."

RESIGNATION OF S. PARKER GILBERT ANNOUNCED FRIDAY

Has Been Acting as Under Secretary of the Treasury

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 22.—The resignation of S. Parker Gilbert, Jr., as under-secretary of the treasury was announced by Secretary Mellon tonight prior to his departure for a two months' vacation in Europe.

Mr. Gilbert will leave the treasury post as soon after Mr. Mellon's return as conditions permit, probably in October, to return to the practice of law.

Mr. Mellon in correspondence with Mr. Gilbert, made public with the announcement said the under-secretary's resignation was the occasion "of extreme regret."

He said he desired publicly to express his "sincere appreciation of the valuable services" rendered by Mr. Gilbert to the country and the treasury.

During his five years with the treasury he served first as a member of the war loan staff which managed all of the loans to America's associates in the war. Upon the resignation of Assistant Secretary Leffingwell, Mr. Gilbert was appointed to succeed him, the youngest man ever to hold that post. When congress in 1921, provided for an under-secretary he was given the place by Mr. Mellon.

As under-secretary Mr. Gilbert has complete control of the treasury's fiscal operations. His administration of the job has won many commendations. During the absence of Mr. Mellon from Washington, Mr. Gilbert will be acting secretary of the treasury.

KU KLUX KLAN STILL WRANGLING

(By The Associated Press)
ATLANTA, Ga., June 22.—Organization of the Knights of Kamalia by William Joseph Simmons, has been temporarily halted by an injunction obtained by the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan who have filed a suit against Colonel Simmons, emperor of the Klan, seeking to enforce the contract alleged to have been entered into between the factions headed by Emperor Simmons and H. W. Evans, imperial wizard, several months ago. Judge John D. Humphries of the Fulton superior court signed the temporary restraining order late Thursday but it did not become known until today. It was made returnable tomorrow but Klan officials stated tonight no action in the matter was expected for a week or more.

PROHIBITION OFFICIALS WILL TAKE LIQUOR FROM SHIPS TODAY

Two British Vessels Arrive with Stocks Under Seal

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 22.—Two ocean liners flying the Union Jack steamed into New York harbor today with excellent stocks of liquor for the trip home, despite the fact that Uncle Sam had said they must cross the three mile limit bone-dry.

All day long the water front waited to see federal agents, pounce on the liquor breaking the British government seals with which the lockers were stamped and carrying away the wet goods. But late this afternoon the liquor remained untouched. Officials at the customs house announced that seizure would be made tomorrow.

If this is done—and tonight there was every indication that it would be—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon who promulgated the dry ruling may learn of his orders being carried out before he sails for Europe tomorrow on the Majestic. He is expected from Washington early tomorrow. One of the British vessels to defy the American dry edict and force a test case was the Cunard liner Berengaria. The fact that she intended to carry liquor across the three mile line had been well heralded and treasury agents in New York had been deluged with orders from Washington as to just how to act.

The other vessel was the White Star liner Baltic. She took the waterfront by surprise. Shipping officers—except her own—were ignorant of the fact that she contemplated a show down. Both Berengaria and Baltic were allowed to pass thru quarantine unmolested and proceed to their docks. Then word came from the custom house that nothing would be done until the customs had appeared with their manifests and applied for permits to retain enough liquor for medicinal purposes.

After this, it was said, any surplus would be seized.

It was learned that at least in the case of the Baltic which beat the Berengaria into port the manifest had been presented and the medicinal liquor permit obtained. It was stated authoritatively that there remained aboard the vessel a substantial quantity of liquor. Davy Jones stowed away many quarts in his locker as a result of the treasury department's ruling however, for the Berengaria and Baltic both tossed overboard at the three mile limit all the liquor provided for the westbound voyage which the passengers could not drink. This was done with appropriate ceremonies aboard the Berengaria.

Passengers Bury Champagne
Lowered into and with bowed heads lowered into the deep a bottle of champagne wrapped in crepe and inscribed "To the three mile limit."

Further contributions were received by Davy from the decks of the United American liner Reliance flying the Panama flag which arrived "bone dry" after tossing overboard her last six bottles.

Passengers on the Lapland, a Red Star liner, succeeded in the bar before the limit was reached.

With two wet Britishers already on their hands, customs officials tomorrow face another deluge. Due in port is the French liner Paris. Before she set sail it was announced that she carried in her hold many a cocktail shakerful for the homeward voyage and that on this select locker had been placed the seal of the French government. The ships arriving tomorrow will continue the report that following in their wake were many other foreign craft all anxious to test the decision of the United States government.

According to those aboard the Baltic decided only an hour before sailing to test the American ruling. She had sailed from Liverpool on June 9, a day before it became effective but had to put back for minor repairs after hitting a submerged wreck.

She sailed again on June 13—three days after the ruling went into effect. Shortly before she cast off she shipped her liquor for the voyage home. It was understood among the passengers that this action was taken as the result of a decision on the part of British, French, Scandinavian and Italian lines to make a concerted attack on the dry ruling.

Just about one of the best laws passed by the general assembly is that which makes it possible to punish auto speeders with jail sentences. In the past offences were punishable by fine and imprisonment was possible, but the law was so complex that it was difficult to enforce.

The legislature straightened this matter out and Gov. Small signed the bill which is expected to aid authorities very greatly in traffic law enforcement.

WHITE HALL PLANS FOR 4TH OF JULY

Preparations Are Now Being Made for Big Celebration—Booster Tour Made—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, June 22.—Boosters occupying fifteen automobiles left White Hall at 1:30 P. M. Thursday and made a circuit of sixty miles flat over the southern part of Greene county, returning at 6 o'clock P. M. The object of the tour was to present in a more intimate way the real meaning of the Fourth of July observance at White Hall. The speaker at each stop was E. C. Pearce, and the K. of P. band gave a number of selections before and following the address. The first stop was at Berdan, where the people said they would have preferred advance notice in order that a better reception could have been arranged. The same was true at Wrights and at Greenfield where there were evidences of indignation over advance information not given. Greenfield is offering the heartiest cooperation in the enterprise, and they will observe the memory of their Revolutionary veteran, Frances Miller, on July 4th at White Hall with fitting participation in the events. Rockbridge, Jalappa, Kane and Carrollton were on the itinerary in the order named. The largest turnout of any point was at Kane, and at Carrollton there was considerable jollity over the fact that a celebration has been ordered for that place, which, however, does not greatly interfere with the afternoon program at White Hall.

W. P. Lindsey managed the tour, and engineered effective advertising along the entire route. He announces that the next tour will be in one week, next Wednesday, and that it will start promptly at 12 noon in order to encompass a larger territory. The first stop will be Hillview, thence Glasgow, Winchester and Jacksonville, reaching the latter point at 3 P. M. From there the return will be through Woodson, Murrayville, Manchester and Roadhouse, it being advisable to make an unusual tarry at Roadhouse. The joy of the first tour insures a full attendance of all who went at that time, and the resultant interest has spread to large numbers of others with prospects of an enormous delegation. The first tour was necessarily an experiment that rendered it impractical to give the advance notice that should have been given.

Greene county's memorable hail storm occurred June 20, 1915 according to the records of the weather station. At White Hall it rained from 8:15 P. M. until 10:30 P. M., amounting to 2.10 inches. During that period hail fell here a full three inches. The center of the hail damage was at Carrollton, where the heavy slugs of ice broke through heavy show windows on the north side of business houses on the square, and some stock was killed and widespread damage of more or less importance.

Quincy county's storm will go to Quincy Monday to take the management of a Kroger store occupying a room 122 feet by 22 feet. He relieved the manager at Roadhouse Friday for the day. It is said that the chain grocery is to open seven stores in Quincy.

WABASH WINS IN TAX CASE

A supreme court ruling holds the county highway tax of 1921 in this county as illegally extended. A decision has just been handed down which thus relieves the Wabash railroad of paying this tax, amounting to between $1,000 and $1,200. The case was taken to the supreme court on behalf of the railroad by Bellatti, Bellatti & Moriarty. The petitioners maintained that the tax was illegal because it had not been authorized by a ye and nay vote of the county board and made a matter of record.

MOUND ROAD OILING PAID BY PROPERTY OWNERS

The Mound road west from Jacksonville has been oiled from the end of the pavement to the Massey lane. This work was paid for by private subscription. V. R. Riley having served as treasurer of the fund. As the hard road is to be built there it was not the intention of the county board to have the roadway oiled this year, but as indicated property owners paid for the oiling done.

HEAVY WHEAT YIELD

Everything points to a heavy wheat yield in this county and in some areas adjoining. Morrison Worthington Thursday was on the Worthington farm near Pleasant Hill in Pike county, where a large acreage is in wheat. In riding thru the field on horse back he found grain something over five feet high and very thick. Unless the wheat in that locality is damaged in some way before it is harvested the yield will be a record breaker.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 23.—The Gold and Blue oars of the Navy eight and substitute four-oared shells dipped into the Hudson at 5 o'clock this afternoon, fifteen minutes after the arrival of the Annapolis oarsmen at Highland on the west shore. Up and down the river on a five mile spin Coach Glendon sent his sweep-swingers, who are the last to reach here in training for the Intercollegiate race on June 28.

Washington was late coming on the course for the evening drill, while Columbia and Cornell were delayed by the rough water.

The morning program witnessed a good workout of the Washington crews at whose quarters it was learned that the westerners' time for their trial yesterday registered 14 minutes 11 seconds, the unofficial record having been several seconds slower.

Meanwhile his manager, Billy Gibson, has matched him to meet Lew Tendler at the Yankee Stadium, July 23.

YALE MAKES CLEAN SWEEP WITH HARVARD

REGATTA COURSE, New London, Conn., June 22.—(By The Associated Press) Sweep- ing to rowing glory that it has not known for nearly a decade, Yale's powerful varsity crew capped the climax of a remarkable comeback this season under American homebred coaching methods, with a smashing, spectacular victory over Harvard as dusk was settling this evening over the picturesque Thames river course.

Flashing across the finish line fully six lengths ahead of a gallant but badly beaten Crimson eight, the Blue Shell closed its 1923 season with an undefeated record and gave the Elis their first clean sweep since 1915 in the annual rowing struggle with their ancient rivals.

This morning the Yale freshmen and junior varsity eights added their measure to the blue tinge of triumph that settled to night over the fifty sixth annual regatta between the two universities.

The Eli eubs sprang something of an upset by walking away from the Cambridge yearlings to win by five lengths while the New Haven junior varsity scored even more decisively over the Crimson second crew leading the way by five and a half lengths.

Yale, in its long and brilliant rowing history has tasted many of the sweets of triumph but it is doubtful whether even in the halcyon days of Bob Cooke's coaching, the bull dog scored as decisively over its traditional foe as it did today.

BRITISH POOR SPORTS WALTER HAGEN SAYS

NEW YORK, June 22.—Openly unsportsmanlike tactics adopted by officials and the gallery at the British open golf championship tournament at Troon have caused Walter Hagen to resolve never again to play in England unless he is assured of better treatment, he declared today on his arrival on the Berengaria.

"They wanted to win so badly that they acted like bad sports," said Hagen, who failed by one stroke to retain the British title which he won last year. "What happened at Troon never has happened on an American course and probably couldn't happen here. I probably am off British tournaments for life."

"The feeling at Troon was most unpleasant and it was easy to see that every possible technicality which might have hampered us was freely resorted to."

The most glaring example of bad sporting tactics Hagen said was the eleventh hour prohibition of the use of "punched clubs."

"The British authorities," he declared knew long ago that we all, both British and American players, used punched clubs and that the Americans more partial to the use of the clubs so treated, had had little time to prepare for play in which the punched clubs were banned. Yet late Saturday afternoon before the Monday morning play was to begin we saw a bulletin posted prohibiting our pet club and no chance to practice Sunday. If that wasn't bad sportsmanship I'd like to know what it was."

Hagen declared his belief that the course was a real test of good golf despite very unfavorable weather. He said his play in the preliminary round had been abominable but that he picked up in the final. The greatest handicap, he asserted was the attitude of the galleries, which, thruout the tournament attempted to bother the Americans. Every time an American player made a poor effort, he said, the galleries would break into derisive applause.

DEMPSEY TOUCHES OFF BIG BEN'S ALARM

GREAT FALLS, Mont., June 22.—(By The Associated Press) Jack Dempsey world's heavy-weight champion today wound up "Big Ben" Wray in less than sixty seconds after the Sayre, Okla., giant with his seven feet two inches of pugilistic ambition, spent four days traveling 2,000 miles to satisfy his craving to try himself out against the heavy-weight champion. Wray, a former cowboy and oil rigger down in Oklahoma was stretched on the floor of the ring, completely knocked out and with a possibly fractured jaw in less than a minute after he came out from his corner to box Dempsey even against the best wishes of his Manager Tex McCarthy, an old time heavyweight.

The Oklahoma Giant weighing 250 pounds, proved to be an absolute novice with nothing but courage and a desire to trade punches with the heavyweight champion. He came out to face Dempsey with his left hand extended but with his right pressed tightly to his chest, boxing timidly like a novice.

Dempsey missed a left hook for the jaw and Wray's face assumed a serious stare as he heard the swish of the glove past his ear. The titleholder feinted for the body and then reached for a left to the jaw missing for the second time with Wray blinking nervously.

The giant Oklahoman laid a light left on Dempsey's body and with a lean the champion swung a left that landed flush on the chin. Wray stiffened back on his heels his long arms flew over his head and he fell backward as stiff as a plank. Dempsey picked him up and attempted to bring him erect but Wray's knees would not support him and Dempsey had to drag him to the edge of the ring with the giant's knees scraping the canvassed covered ring. A big red lump began to swell under Wray's right ear where Dempsey's fist crashed home on the jaw bone. He was rushed downtown to a physician who declared it was possible that his jaw had been fractured.

Dempsey went thru eight rounds of work in his outdoor ring before a crowd of more than 2,000 persons, the largest that ever attended a champion's training session. The crowd was largely made up of visiting shrimpers here for a convention. With the exception of his four rounds with George Godfrey, the 225 pound negro and Billy Wells, the British welterweight, the champion did not get much of a workout.

Bill Wolpin, the light heavyweight of Appleton, Wis., had a rough voyage with Dempsey hitting the floor twice in less than a round. He was in such a helpless condition that the workout had to be ended.

Johnny Kilbane, the former featherweight champion who is here writing for a syndicate of newspapers acted as referee of the champion's training bouts. Kilbane declared he marvelled at Dempsey's hitting and general condition.

BUY GERMAN MARKS

In view of the fact that German marks have become very common around Jacksonville through various sources and on account of the low price of this class of foreign money, six employees in the court house offices have become plungers in the financial market by pooling their funds and buying 190,000 marks for the sum of $4.50.

Before the World War a 10,000 mark note was worth $2,200 and on that basis this money would now be worth $41,800. The holders argue that Germany may some time regain part of her prestige and her money have more value on exchange, and figure that the chance is worth a joint investment of $4.50.

GIANTS WIN EXTRA INNING VICTORY

NEW YORK, June 22.—The New York Nationals returned home and won an extra victory today from the Boston club by a score of 9 to 5. Jack Scott started his first game for New York since May 19, when he had a hand broken with a batted ball and pitched a fair game.

Score: New York . . . 000 622 001—5 11 4 Boston . . . 000 022 001—5 11 4

CHANGES IN LINE UP OF INDEES

Manager Smith has signed McGee who has played such splendid basketball and baseball with the local Yankees, to play as utility with the Indies. French will be used as right fielder and relief pitcher with Ira Fanning as the first string man. He will start the game Sunday against the O'Connells and Smith states that he will probably give McGee a chance to show his wares.

Smith's tentative lineup for Sunday is: Massinkoff, cf; Wheeler, 1b; Ruble, ss; Kohloff, 2b; Christopher, lf; DeFrates, 3b; French, rf; Clark, c; Fanning, p; McGee and Doyle, utility.

BRADSTREET'S
WILL SAY TODAY

NEW YORK, June 22.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: "A very fair measure of improvement in crops and a smaller gain in retail buying and in re-order trade with jobbers of summer goods followed clearing skies in the south and west, while needed rains have made for a better crop outlook in the northwest. These natural developments in a favorable direction for the week are to be considered over against some at least temporarily, disturbing features in the shape of failures of two old financial houses, which unsettled the stock, cotton and other speculative markets, rather heavy declines in wheat prices preceding and following a conference at which means for obtaining better prices for this product were discussed and sympathetic or seasonal weakness in other commodities which seem to make it fairly certain that June will see another decline in price index numbers."

TO OCCUPY NEW BANK QUARTERS NEXT WEEK

Remodeled Farmers' State Bank & Trust Building Is Greatly Changed and Improved—Main Room Is Lofly, Spacious and Well Lighted

The Farmers' State Bank & Trust Co. is preparing to occupy the remodeled bank building at 27 South Side Square next week. The building firm was driven from its quarters by the fire of Dec. 10th last. The new quarters are almost completed, and many improvements and changes have been made for the convenience of both customers and bank officials and employees.

The building was formerly three stories, of which the banking business occupied the first. It is now two stories, with a 28-foot ceiling. Little or no electricity will be required in the bank, as it is housed in a sky-light room. Three large skylights, as well as first and second story windows in front and rear furnish an abundance of light and give the room an appearance of lightness and spaciousness that is really impressive.

In the main banking room is a large customers' lobby, equipped with upholstered seats, glass-covered check desks, etc.; the officers' quarters, tellers' cages and counting room, and the stairs leading to the mezzanine floors in the rear. In the rear of the main floor is a ladies' rest room which will be comfortably furnished, a smaller customers' lobby, and a convenient telephone booth.

The first mezzanine floor is reached by an easy stair. It contains a large directors' room, which may also be used for meetings of large committees, and plenty of well lighted space for other purposes. The third mezzanine floor, still farther in the rear of the building, contains the watchman's quarters, storage room, etc.

The bank will have four vaults, the main vault entered from the banking quarters. This vault has been enlarged until there is three times as much space as formerly. The concrete vaults of the bank were not damaged by fire or water and their contents were all intact. The new enlarged vaults are equipped with the latest safe appliances, steel doors, triple-lock locks, etc. There is a basement vault for storage purposes, and there is also yet to be erected another vault on top of the main vaults, which may be entered from the first mezzanine floor.

The bank is ventilated by the windows in front and rear, and a blower has also been installed to draw fresh air into the building from above the roof. The roof is of steel and concrete and is made fireproof. The customers' main lobby has been finished in mahogany and marble. The bank furniture has been refinished and new bronze grills have been placed about the cages and across the front of the first mezzanine balcony.

H. & H. WILL HAVE NEW SHOW WINDOW

Work will be begun Monday on a new show window at the Hopper and Hoffman furniture store on the east side of the square. The partition that has for so many years occupied the middle of the store, dividing it into two separate rooms, will be taken down and new show windows will be built that will be very much larger than those now used. There will be only one entrance to the store when the remodeling has been completed.
